Three-Year-Olds Meet In Top Cranwood Event

Entry of Torso and Ona Brand Likely Choices in Peninsula

CRANWOOD PARK, Warrensville Heights, Ohio, May 20.—An allowance race restricted to three-year-olds holds the top spot on tomorrow's card here. The feature is a dash of six furlongs and a purse of $1,000. A limit field of nine starters is listed overnight to answer the bugle.

Five of the group entered in the headliner, which is posted as the sixth race and bears the title of the Peninsula, appeared here last week in a race under similar conditions. Of the quintet, Torso and Ona Band finished best, being second and third, respectively, to Double Whorl. Ona Band and Torso are again coupled as an entry for Valley Brook Farm in this engagement. Of the remaining three, Harry Sneiderman's Shirley's Roll was fourth in back of the Valley Brook Farm pair, while G. E. Baker's Supreme Ann crossed the line as the sixth horse, followed by Who Said So, owned in partnership by Clark & Hagin.

Completing the lineup in the Peninsula is Sis's Advice, belonging to the combined interests of A. & A. New; Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove's Claymore Girl, Glen Gorbet's Fly Demon, and C. E. Mickens' Outrider.

With a fast track promised for tomorrow the order in which the five who opposed each other in the race last week may change, because a "heavy" track prevailed on that occasion. The entry of Ona Band and Torso were choices in the wagering when defeated by Double Whorl and will probably again be made favorites in this outing. Torso encountered poor racing luck in being beaten a half-length, and Ona Band, who finished a length farther back, may have needed the outing to place her at peak condition. The former was slow in getting under way and then was blocked repeatedly in the running. With clear sailing, she probably would have been first to cross the wire.

Outrider graduated from the maiden ranks last week and did it in such an impressive manner that he will likely be considered the one to offer the stoutest resistance to the Valley Brook Farm pair. If the son of Equestrian handles a dry strip equally as well as a muddy strip, he should have little trouble in earning another set of brackets. Outrider splashed his way to a 12-length victory over his nearest rival in his only start here.

West Virginia Notes

CHARLES TOWN, Charles Town, W. Va., May 20.

Willie Nertney, former contract rider for Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt is riding here.

A check-up of horses stabled on the property of the Charles Town Jockey Club in the numerous barns hereabouts as well as the stables at Berryville, Va., and Hagerstown, Md., half mile tracks, shows over 1,500 thoroughbreds being trained for a crack at the purses to be offered during the 43 days sport starting today.

Stanley Austin, Ray Arduini, Emelio Carrillo, Danny Scocca, George Cardoza and Eddie Ballenger are some of the riders who performed last week at Pimlico and who are on hand to accept mounts.

A. A. "Sandy" Baldwin and Dulany Randolph, two well-known Virginia turfmen, are serving as placing judges, along with E. A. Stone of this city.

Vanderbilt Unit to Camden

GARDEN STATE PARK, Camden, N. J., May 20.—The vanguard of some 10 horses which Alfred G. Vanderbilt will ship to Garden State Park this week arrived yesterday at the Camden course. Daily Racing Form Speed Ratings

The handicappers and statisticians of DAILY RACING FORM have evolved a Speed Rating system that is far superior to any yet devised. Instead of being based merely on track records, the ratings are based primarily on the constant, or mean, speed of the track, allowances thus being made for variation in footing. By this method, when a horse earns a rating of. say 85, for a six-furlong race at Belmont Park, he earns the same rating by the same effort at any other track. Speed ratings are shown in the past performances after the claiming price or race classification.

Harrow Monmouth Strip

OCEANPORT, N. J., May 20.—The Monmouth Park racing strip, regarded by horsemen as one of the safest in the country, was harrowed last week-end for the first time this season, as a loosening-up process after the winter storms and frost, and to begin its preparation for the forthcoming meeting opening June 21. The course will be ready for horses on June 1, general manager Edward J. Brennan reports.

Five in Dant String Here

WASHINGTON PARK, Homewood, Ill., May 20.—Michael J. Dant, prominent Kentucky sportsman and distiller, will be represented on the Illinois circuit this season by five thoroughbreds trained by Arthur Perossier. The stakes winner Southern Pride is the star of the Louisville-owned quintet and others in the Dant string are Mountain Roar, Miss Golightly, Justa Snacy and the two-year-old filly Boat Star.

JOCKEY GEORGE SOUTH—Will ride Fighting Frank in the Steger Handicap.

Torchator Accomplishes Fast Three-Eighths Move

Is Timed Distance in :33⅘ in Preparation for William Penn

GARDEN STATE PARK, Camden, N. J., May 20.—H. Guy Bedwell's speedy chestnut colt Torchator, emerged as the early favorite for Saturday's $10,000 William Penn Stakes for two-year-old colts and geldings, following a sensational speed trial this morning which saw the son of Lassator—May Torch, step three-eighths in :33⅘, after being clocked the quarter mile in 21⅘.

R. J. "Bobby" Martin was astride the Bedwell youngster during his scintillating trial and will ride Torchator in Saturday's five furlongs feature.

Torchator is one of the season's leading juvenile developments for in addition to equaling the half-mile track record this winter at Santa Anita, the colt captured Bowie's Kindergarten Stakes.

Two other eligibles for the William Penn were given speed trials this morning in preparation for the week-end fixture. D. A. Rosenbaum's promising bay colt American Glory was timed five furlongs, the William Penn route, in the commendable time of 1:01 handily, while Mrs. Alfred Roberts' Eatontown, breaking from the gate, was clocked the same distance in 1:02 handily.

On the strength of their respective trials, both American Glory and Eatontown are almost certain to contest Saturday's feature.

The clever bay colt Mr. Jay, who will flaunt Mrs. Moody Jolley's silks on Saturday, became a certain starter this morning with the announcement that trainer Moody Jolley had engaged the veteran reinsman Harrison B. Wilson to handle his charge.

Earlier in the week the William Penn promised to take postward one of the largest fields in its history, but Torchator's brilliant trial this morning and Blue Peter's very impressive victory on Tuesday, may serve to prompt the connections of a number of candidates to reserve their charges from competition.

Blue Peter, just one of several speedy and well trained youngsters whom the veteran Andy Schuttinger is conditioning for owner J. M. Roebling, set a new track record of :59⅕ for five furlongs in scoring a handy victory over a number of worthy rivals on Tuesday.

The bay son of War Admiral—Carillon won by three lengths under Wayne D. Wright's confident handling and left in his wake such stout William Penn candidates as Crispin Oglebay's Noble Impulse, Mr. Jay and Darby Dan Farm's Danherst. Blue Peter conceded weight to all rivals in that engagement.

Noble Impulse, despite his trouncing, very likely will be given another crack at the Roebling youngster and trainer Jolley expressed the conviction that Mr. Jay will run an improved race on Saturday.

In the meantime, racing secretary M. C. "Ty" Shea has arranged an above average program for tomorrow. The card is featured by the one mile and a sixteenth Westmont Purse which is headed by Myron Newmeyer's Turbine, who appears to have fully regained his once formidable form. Turbine finished a charging second to the fleet Erigeron in a six furlongs overnight handicap last Saturday and shapes up a staunch favorite in the Westmont.

Turbine's rivals include Petrol Point, Our Sensation, Golden Bull, Black Pepper, Fast Freight, Tacaro Briar, Crowflight and Daralet. Golden Bull and Tacaro Briar will race as the Pistorio-Hall Entry. Golden Bull, Black Pepper and Tacaro Briar shape up as Turbine's staunchest rivals.

Abandon Assessment Plan

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 20.—A proposed increase of 20 per cent in the assessment of livestock, including thoroughbreds, in Fayette County, was abandoned after a state tax commission hearing yesterday at Frankfort. Gayle Mohney, Tom R. Underwood and other representatives of Blue Grass bloodstock interests conferred with the Commission, of which Clyde Reeves is chairman, in an effort to arrive at an equitable method of horse assessment. Mohney pointed out that there is no rule-of-thumb on the value of a horse. The commission now has under advisement a 10 per cent increase in farm tax.
